SUICIDE IN A CELL

Officer Henze, of the Eighth precinct, arrested George Schmidt, a shoemaker, who was drunk and acting in a disorderly manner at a late houron Monday night in front of his residence, No. 74 Thomp taken before Captain McDonnell, and the officer said he had threatened to beat all the saloon keepers in Thompson street if they did not give him liquor. Schmidt said he was fifty-six years old and a native of Germany. He was consigned to a native of Germany. He was consigned to a cell in the basement of the station house. Doorman Blunt, who locked him in, returned in about ten minutes, and found the shoemaker hanging to one of the bars above his cell door. The body was cut down, and, as it showed signs of life, Police Surgeon Cook and Ambulance Surgeon Schapp operated on it for over fifteen minutes, but without success. Schmidt, it was learned, though once a sober, industrious mun, had become a hard drinker since his wife's death, last spring. He will be buried in the Potter's Field.

"JERSEY JUSTICE."

An idiosyneracy of "Jersey justice" was witnessed in the Essex County Court, at Newark, yesterday. Henry Thompson, the man who was arrested last June on suspicion of being the person who waylaid and robbed Mrs. Fuller, at Montclair who waylaid and robbed Mrs. Fuller, at Montclair, was arraigned to answer an indictment, not for the robbery of Mrs. Fuller—there was no evidence whatever against him in that case—but for a larceny, which, upon his examination, he had confessed to being guilty of, the victim being some unknown person. Beyond this there was no evidence against him. He was convicted and sentenced to six months in the County Penitentiary.

THE MAN FROM PERU SENTENCED.

[From the Troy Times, Sept. 29.] Upon being arraigned for sentence in the Albany County Court of Sessions on Saturday and when asked if he had anything to say why the sentence of the Court should not be pronounced upon him, Louis Ramel, the "Man from Peru," convicted of attempting to blow up the Drew, replied by reading a carefully prepared and rather remark-able statement. He protested his innocence "before God and the august court," and then proceeded to review the case, accusing the prosecution of trickery and unlawful devices in obtaining evidence against him, and the "august court," with "unin-tentional forgetfulness" in the presentation of the tentional forgetfulness" in the presentation of the testimony of three of the witnesses to the jury. He asserted that the witnesses referred to did not testify to anything like the evidence imputed to them, and finally demanded a review of his case by an appellate court. His imputent harangue was treated with silout contempt, and a motion by his counsel for a new trial was denied, after which the sentence of seven years in Clinton Prison—the longest term allowed by law for the offence charged—was passed upon him. The prisoner took this announcement as unconcernedly as he did his arrest the morning of the explosion. When questioned as to his age and birth prior to the imposition of the sentence, ine said he was bore in Paris thirty-five years ago and was a civil engineer.
